

End Track
By Morpheus Shield

End tracks playback
Crumbs of those days unfold
Like a peach revealing its pit
And falling into its fractaled center

Yellow orange sunsets
Painting mountains in your dad's car
End tracks playback
And bunnies play their sports while she
Eats up the floor

Basement walls peel their paint
You and your friends all going insane
End tracks playback
I'm not kissing you tonight
Although we'll get high in the summer

Inspire patches on the
Never finished jacket
Endtracks playback
Like the inevitable return
To a party not invited to Feeling sorry for Tommy

Smoke clouds dress
Television screens
Endtracks playback
Girls got your head under the
Dropping guillotine

Hoodies are all we wear
And cool sneakers just like the years before
End tracks playback
And no one wins in Wii sports
But we'll meet up again

Sametime,
Same place,

Next week,

Until the end track plays back

And all that's left are the crumbs

That we unfold on summer days

Or winter nights
